Auto Dealers Settlement 4th Round

If your dealership purchased new vehicles and/or certain component parts, you may be entitled to a substantial payment resulting from a class action lawsuit.

In re Automotive Parts Antitrust Litigation, No. 12-md-02311

Settlement Fund: Total to Date approximately $115,000,000

Period of Claim: 1990 through 2019

Filing Deadline: April 17, 2020

Summary: The lawsuit claims that the Defendants conspired to fix, maintain, and artificially raise the price of component parts and as a result, Dealers paid more than they should have for the vehicles in which those parts are contained.

Eligibility: Your dealership can file a claim for money benefits if you purchased new vehicles and/or certain parts for resale between 1990 and 2019 in The District of Columbia and the following states: Arizona, Arkansas, California, Florida, Hawaii, Illinois, Iowa, Kansas, Maine, Massachusetts, Michigan, Minnesota, Mississippi, Missouri, Nebraska, Nevada, New Hampshire, New Mexico, New York, North Carolina, North Dakota, Oregon, South Carolina, South Dakota, Tennessee, Utah, Vermont, West Virginia and Wisconsin.

If you filed a valid claim in the previous settlement, you are not required to file a new claim; however, there are additional years and qualifying vehicles in the latest settlement.

The Claims Administrator requires dealerships to provide year-end manufacturers' statements (namely, the summary page that verifies your dealership name, address and dealer number; and the Gross Profit Analysis page(s) that lists the specific models and numbers purchased/sold).
