Auto Dealers Settlement 3rd Round

If your dealership purchased new vehicles and/or certain component parts, you may be entitled to a substantial payment resulting from a class action lawsuit.

In re Automotive Parts Antitrust Litigation, No. 12-md-02311

Settlement Fund: Total to Date approximately $115,000,000

Period of Claim: 1995 through 2017

Filing Deadline: January 21, 2019

Summary: The lawsuit claims that the Defendants conspired to fix, maintain, and artificially raise the price of component parts and as a result, Dealers paid more than they should have for the vehicles in which those parts are contained.

Eligibility: Your dealership can file a claim for money benefits if you purchased new vehicles and/or certain parts for resale between January 1, 1995 and November 15, 2017 in The District of Columbia and the following states: Arizona, Arkansas, California, Florida, Hawaii, Illinois, Iowa, Kansas, Maine, Massachusetts, Michigan, Minnesota, Mississippi, Montana, Nebraska, Nevada, New Hampshire, New Mexico, New York, North Carolina, North Dakota, Oregon, South Carolina, South Dakota, Tennessee, Utah, Vermont, West Virginia and Wisconsin.

The Claims Administrator requires dealerships to provide year-end manufacturers' statements (namely, the summary page that verifies your dealership name, address and dealer number; and the Gross Profit Analysis page(s) that lists the specific models and numbers purchased/sold).
