Dealer Management Systems Settlement

If you are a U.S.-based retail auto dealership that bought a Reynolds or CDK Dealer Management System (DMS) from January 1, 2015 through October 23, 2018, you may be entitled to a substantial payment resulting from a class action lawsuit.

In re: Dealer Management Systems Antitrust Litigation, MDL NO. 2817 (N.D. Ill)

Settlement Fund:	Reynolds $29,500,0000 CDK – T.B.D.
Period of Claim:	January 1, 2015 through October 23, 2018
Filing Deadline:	To be determined
Summary:	The lawsuit claims that Reynolds and CDK conspired to restrain and/or eliminate competition by charging dealerships more than they should have for Dealer Management System (“DMS”) software services and for Data Integration Services (“DIS”) programs and services for extracting, formatting, integrating, and/or organizing data from DMSs..
Eligibility:	All persons and entities located in the United States engaged in the business of the retail sales of automobiles who purchased DMSs (Dealer Management Systems) from CDK and/or Reynolds, or any predecessor, successor, subsidiary, joint venture, or affiliate, during the period from January 1, 2015 through October 23, 2018.
