Settlement Fund: $17,600,000 (Packaging Corporation of America)
$4,800,00 Proposed Cascades Canada, ULC/Norampac Holdings US, Inc.
$354,000,000 International Paper
Litigation is ongoing against the other Defendants that have not settled this case.

Period of Claim: February 15, 2004 through November 8, 2010

Filing Deadline: February 6, 2018 (Currently filing late claims)

Summary: The lawsuit alleges that the Defendants engaged in illegal anti-competitive conduct regarding the sale of Containerboard Products, and that as a result, direct purchasers of Containerboard Products during the Class Period paid a higher price than otherwise would have been the case in a competitive market. Defendants deny Plaintiffs' allegations and the Court has not ruled on the merits of the claims or defenses.

Eligibility: All persons and entities that, during the Class Period purchased Containerboard Products directly from Defendants in the United States. Containerboard Products includes linerboard, corrugated medium, corrugated sheets and corrugated products, including boxes and other containers.

Defendants: Packaging Corporation of America (PCA), International Paper, Cascades Canada, Inc., Norampac Holdings U.S. Inc., Weyerhaeuser Company, Georgia Pacific LLC, Temple-Inland Inc., TIN Inc., and RockTenn CP, LLC, which was formerly known as Smurfit-Stone Container Corporation.

Defendants also includes all of these companies' predecessors (including Containerboard Products manufacturers merged with, or acquired by them) and each of their wholly-owned or controlled subsidiaries or affiliates that sold Containerboard Products directly to purchasers in the United States during the Class Period.
